

Ecumenical Centre of Los Rubios

The Ecumenical Centre of Los Rubios is a part of the Spanish Evangelical Church. It's a place for holidays, meetings, retreats and seminars for individual visitors, families and groups of any age and religious orientation.

The location of Los Rubios Centre with only 200 meters to the beach, also offers the possibility of one day excursions by bus to discover the history, the culture and the art of Andalusia, and explore some of the most significant of its monuments in Granada, Cordoba and Seville.

Visits at any time of the year of the famous leisure and natural parks in the area are also possible: TIVOLI WORLD, SELWO Aventura, AQUALAND, Natural Park of Tejada, Torcal and the Mountains of Malaga, Laguna de Fuente de Piedra, Sierra de las Nieves, Zoo de Fuengirola, Delphinarium, Parque de Cocodrilos, etc..

In the 20 guestrooms of the Centre up to 60 persons can be accommodated for each kind of activity in its great multifunctional hall with the possibility of being separated into 3 independent rooms, with internet-access and a big garden for outdoor meetings all the year around.

The facilities in the Centre enable the organisation of courses, retreats, conferences and seminaries. During the preparation of such an event the Centre offers to the organizers the necessary local contacts and dates to guarantee their success.

Also information can be offered to such groups who are interested in the history of the Spanish Evangelical Church and its ecumenical relations.

In the ECUMENICAL CENTRE LOS RUBIOS you can enjoy a few days of rest and relaxation on the Costa del Sol, in a country setting very close to the beach and at the same time near to the wonderful city of Málaga.
