

The Ecumenical Academy is a civic association, which is engaged in adult education and support of public discussions especially in the field of development cooperation and human rights. It organises seminars and conferences, participates in campaigns and publishes various materials. Its activities are realised in co-operation with many Czech and foreign partners and it is active in important civil society organisations (e.g. the Czech Forum for Development Co-operation, Fair Trade Czech Republic, Social Watch, Climate Coalition). It is a member of the Oikonsnet Europe Network as well. It's members are churches, organisations and personalities from the Czech Republic, Germany, Austria and the UK.
